
SUSPENSIONS AND DEBARMENTS

Since December 2005, the Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction (SIGIR) has worked closely with the: Department of Justice (DoJ), Army Criminal Investigative Command, Defense Criminal Investigative Service, and the Army Legal Service Agency's Procurement Fraud Branch to suspend and debar contractors for fraud or corruption within the Army, including those involving Iraq reconstruction or Army support contracts in Iraq. These cases arise as the result of criminal indictments filed in federal district courts and allegations of contractor irresponsibility that require fact-based examination by the Army's Suspension and Debarment Official.

In June 2003, the Department of Defense designated the Department of the Army as the executive agent for contracting support to the Coalition Provisional Authority (CPA). As a result, the Army's Suspension and Debarment Program leads the effort to ensure the integrity of contractors performing these contracts. The goal of this program is to ensure that these contracts are awarded to, and performed by, contractors who are honest and ethical and who have the ability to successfully perform this important work. The Procurement Fraud Branch has also taken a leading role within the Army and at joint contracting organizations to train contracting officers to aid in the prevention and early detection of contractor fraud in Iraq reconstruction and support contracts.

To date, the Procurement Fraud Branch has suspended 18 individuals and companies, based on allegations of fraud and misconduct connected to Iraq reconstruction. Included in this list are five individuals involved in the Bloom/Stein conspiracy, as reported in the October 2006 SIGIR Quarterly Report to The Congress. In addition, 17 individuals and companies have been proposed for debarment to the Army Suspension and Debarment Official, resulting in 9 debarments.

In addition to suspension and debarment actions, during the first quarter of 2007, the Suspension and Debarment Official formally requested that Parsons Corporation (Parsons) provide information regarding its current responsibilities as a government contractor. This action was based on allegations made by SIGIR against Parsons Global Services Company, a subsidiary of Parsons Corporation, regarding contracts awarded to Parsons by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Gulf Regional Division. These allegations called into question the effectiveness of the company's standards of conduct and internal control systems, resulting in an inquiry based on the provisions of Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) Section 203.7000. No action has been taken to date against Parsons or its subsidiaries pending the outcome of this inquiry.

The Army also entered into an Administrative Compliance Agreement with Eagle Global Logistics, a freight forwarder operating in the Middle East, in May 2006. For information on specific actions by the Army Suspension and Debarment Official, see Table K-1.
